"Welcome Rock Crawlers" - These words were up on the tender boards of businesses across Boyd as the CRAWL Crew pulled into this small town in Texas. Friday, tech is at the Southern Delight Diner, it's hot and humid and threatening to thunderstorm. W.E. ROCK is creating a traffic jam along the pick-ups and big rigs streaming through town as competitors and fans pulled into the parking lot.

After the honey taking it to the web, and having the 25' wall.

See you at the 2014 W.E. ROCK Nationals in Boyd, TX.

Always taking it to the web, and having the 25' wall.

Can't climb using the back leg, with more push.

Oh, well, it's a good day for the crew.
